(b) No, Sir. The policy of the Government is based on the premise that the migrants would return to their native places in the Valley once the conditions reasonably conducive for their return are created.

(c) Question does not arise.

(d) No, Sir.

(e) Government have taken steps to ensure that the difficulties and hardships of the migrants, while they are outside the Valley, are minimised. Various States/UTs are providing the needy families with a reasonable amount of sustenance and support in accordance with the norms/rules prevailing in the respective States/UTs and as per the available resources. Cash relief at different rates as applicable in the various States/UTs are being provided to the migrants. Special measures have been taken in Jammu & Delhi to further improve the living conditions of the migrants in the camps.
